PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Final-year Computer Science and Design student with hands-on experience building scalable, full-stack web applications. Proficient in Next.js and the complete MERN stack, paired with a unique edge in developing immersive 3D interfaces using Three.js and React Three Fiber. Successfully delivered production-deployed client projects featuring robust database integrations, secure backend logic, and dynamic frontend interactions. Seeking a Full-Stack Developer role to engineer fast, secure, and visually engaging web products from the database layer to the user interface.
